Last year, renowned musician and classic organist, Sergio de Pieri (left), again visited Australia from Italy. During that time, he helped to coordinate the second Moreland Classic Music Festival and gave a superb recital at Bernies Music Land on the Johannus classic organ.

Sergio is also renowned for his work in instigating the Ballarat Goldfields Organ Festival and the Murray River Festival at Mildura, held in January each year.

The wonderful news is that Sergio is back again and has embarked on a new musical adventure, the Brunswick Beethoven Festival. It will be a feast of musical performances and aims to raise $15,000 for charity.

The Brunswick Beethoven Festival already has an exciting line-up of ten concerts beginning on Friday 6 February and running until Sunday 15 February, 2009. Bernies Music Land is proud to be sponsoring this Festival by supplying a magnificent Schimmel grand piano for these concerts.

The concerts will feature talented performers including Anthony Halliday (piano), the Freshwater Trio and the Tailem Quartet. Tickets approximately $20.

Details of the Brunswick Beethoven Festival will be sent to MusiClub members in January 2009 and we hope you can support this wonderful series of events! Please reserve your tickets today at Bernies Music Land or by phoning 9872 5122. Bernies Music Land is proud to support this Festival.
